

Andrea most recently played the role of Mo Mowlam in AGREEMENT by Owen McCafferty, directed by Charlotte Westenra for the Lyric Theatre, Belfast. She will return to reprise her role as Mo this spring at the Lyric Theatre.

Recent screen roles include the role of Anne alongside Chris Walley in PEAT directed by Paudie Baggott; the part of Lady Beit in BALTIMORE directed by Christine Molloy & Joe Lawlor; the role of Rachel alongside Saleh Bakri, Imogen Poots and Stanley Townsend in the feature film THE TEACHER, directed by Farah Nabulsi; Assistant Chief Constable Nicola Robinson in BLUE LIGHTS, directed by Gilles Bannier for the BBC; and the role of Fiadh in the feature DEAD SHOT directed by Thomas & Charles Guard.

Andrea played the role of Mairéad McDaid in David Ireland's play SADIE, made by the Lyric Theatre Belfast & Field Day for broadcast on the BBC.

Further screen credits include the role of Róisín Hastings opposite Adrian Dunbar in LINE OF DUTY for the BBC; the lead role of Angela Tyrrell in three series of RED ROCK for Element Pictures; and the feature films BOYS FROM COUNTY HELL directed by Chris Baugh, and END OF SENTENCE directed by Elfar Edelsteins.

Her extensive stage work includes (most recently) David Ireland's CYPRUS AVENUE directed by Vicky Featherstone for the Royal Court and the Abbey Theatre; THE GREAT HUNGER directed by Conall Morrison for the Abbey Theatre, a site specific production; and SIVE directed by Garry Hynes for Druid Theatre Co.
