

Catherine is fourteen years of age.

Catherine is best known for her debut role of Cáit in the Irish language film AN CAILÍN CIÚIN (THE QUIET GIRL) which premiered at the Berlin International Film Festival 2022.

Based on the acclaimed short story Foster by Claire Keegan, AN CAILÍN CIÚIN is a complex coming-of-age drama that explores questions of family, neglect and loss through the eyes of its young protagonist (played by Catherine).

AN CAILÍN CIÚIN is the feature film debut of writer/director, Colm Bairéad and producer, Cleona Ní Chruaí of Inscéal and is the first Irish language film to feature at the Berlin Film Festival. Awards and nominations include:

- Winner Best International Feature at the London Critics' Circle Awards 2023
- Nominated for Best International Feature at the Academy Awards (awards March 2023)
- Nominated Best Film Not in the English Language at the BAFTAs (awards 19th Feb. 2023)

Catherine voices the role of the Daughter, alongside Niamh Algar as the Mother, in the animated short film WIND AND THE SHADOW, directed and written by Kris Kelly. The short has recently been nominated for Best Animated Short Film at the IFTA 2024.

Catherine is musical and loves drawing, reading and making up her own stories.

She swims and has played hockey and Gaelic Football.

She attends dance and drama classes at the Independent Theatre Workshop.
