

Caitríona has been cast as a lead role of Alor in LIKE ME, a Screen Ireland Focus Short directed by Aisling Brady. Her most recent screen credits include the role of Erica alongside Elva Trill and Stephen Jones in the TV series NORTHERN LIGHTS, directed by Tom Hall and Ruth Meehan for Deadpan Pictures & Lionsgate; the TV series CLEAN SWEEP alongside Charlene McKenna and Barry Ward, directed by Ronan Burke; KISSING CANDICE alongside Ann Skelly and Lydia McGuinness, directed by Aoife McArdle; and WE OURSELVES directed by Paul Mercier.

Her extensive theatre credits include DUCK DUCK GOOSE by Caitríona Daly for Fishamble: The New Play Company; 14 VOICES FROM THE BLOODIED FIELD, for the Abbey Theatre; and THE FALL OF THE SECOND REPUBLIC directed by Annie Ryan for the Corn Exchange. Most recently Caitríona toured with the Druid Theatre Co. for their production of DRUID O'CASEY: THE DUBLIN PLAYS, directed by Garry Hynes. Caitríona will be reprising her role as Minnie Powell in the Druid Theatre National Tour of THE SHADOW OF A GUNMAN, directed by Garry Hynes.

Caitríona has excellent comedic instincts paired with a strong ability to play deep tragedy. Her gifts for multi-roling, improvisation, and devising, combined with a keen interest in new writing, have been central to the development of her theatre work.
