

John has most recently been cast as Lee in the short film SIN EATER by Seán Clancy and in Chris O'Dowd's new series for Sky Originals, SMALL TOWN BIG STORY. Recent credits include Baz in NORTHERN LIGHTS directed by Tom Hall & Ruth Meehan for Deadpan Pictures & Lionsgate; and as Darren in Eva O'Connor's MUSTARD for RTÉ Storyland.

Further credits include the role of Leo in Caitríona Daly's DUCK DUCK GOOSE directed by Jim Culleton for Fishamble; THE TEDDYBEARS PICNIC directed by Louis Lovett for Theatre Lovett; and GOODNIGHT EGG, co-created by John, Ursula McGinn and Mollie Molumby. GOODNIGHT EGG is a joyful new play with puppetry, miniatures and music, developed with support from The Arts Council's Project Award.

In 2020 he played the role of Finbarr Lowe opposite Caitríona Ennis in THE FALL OF THE SECOND REPUBLIC by Michael West, to be directed by Annie Ryan for the Corn Exchange on the Abbey Theatre stage. His further stage credits include GYM / SWIM / PARTY directed by Louise Lowe for Dublin Theatre Festival 2019.
