

Tishé most recently played the role of The Writer in LISTEN, A BLACK WOMAN IS SPEAKING, directed by Joy Nesbitt. She played the role of Red in WE DANCE, directed by Praise Titus, for which Tishé was awarded Best Performer at the 2022 Irish Student Drama Awards. Tishé was recently awarded the Black and Irish award for Actor of the Year 2023 for her work on WE DANCE.

She played Saint Joan in a 2022 amalgamation of the work of George Bernard Shaw titled GBS which was shot in the National Gallery of Ireland, directed by Kellie Hughes. Tishé played the lead role in RE:JOYCE a 2022 short film imagining the life of a young modern, gender-bent James Joyce at UCD.

Tishé is a Dublin-based actor, writer, and theatre maker as well as a co-founder of a newly launched black-run theatre company named ArinolaTheatre.

Height: 5' 5"

Hair: Black

Eyes: Dark Brown

Playing Age: 18-25

Skills: Singing and Yoruba

FILM

RE:JOYCE - A LIFE IN THE DAY | Leo (Lead)

bigO Agency

Ignas Laugalis

THEATRE

LISTEN, A BLACK WOMAN IS SPEAKING | The Writer

WE DANCE | Red

IN MY OPINION! | Áine

GBS | Joan of Arc

Project Arts

Joy Nesbitt

Smock Alley

Praise Titus

UCD Drama Soc

Nessa Molumby

UCD Ad Astra Academy

Kellie Hughes