

Úna's most recent stage credits include THE HARE, a new play by Clare Monnelly and Bob Kelly, for Once Off Productions, she will be returning to this role for the national tour in 2024; the role of Jennifer in HUMANS: A ROBOT MUSICAL, directed by Niall Cleary. Further credits include the role of Lucia in THE LONG CHRISTMAS DINNER directed by Sarah Jane Scaife & Raymond Keane for the Abbey Theatre; and the two-hander play THE SLEEP THAT REFUSED TO SETTLE, directed by Niall Cleary for Graffiti Theatre Co. Last year Úna performed the one-woman show THE HARE (written by Clare Monnelly and Bob Kelly) in a development reading as part of the Cairde Festival, Sligo, and played Jennifer in HUMANS: A ROBOT MUSICAL by John McCarthy, directed by Niall Cleary for the Cork Midsummer Festival.

On screen Úna has most recently been seen as the lead, Meg, in DEBUTANTE directed by Kamila Dydyna. The short film was nominated for the Best Short Film Award at the 2022 Irish Film and Television Awards. Úna herself was nominated for Best Actor in a Female Role at the Richard Harris International Film Festival in 2021 for her role in DEBUTANTE.

Úna's further credits include A DEAL'S A DEAL directed by Mick Gordon, which featured as part of RTÉ Storyland, and LEX TALIONIS: A TALE OF REVENGE AND FEATHERS directed by Katrina Foley for Wandering Star Theatre Co. Úna trained in Drama and Theatre Studies at the CIT Cork School of Music, and is Cork-based.
